SECTION 1: USING THE GUIDE AND SEEKING HELP

This guide is for you to use when planning for your release. It includes addresses, phone numbers, websites, and general information that can lead you towards programs that benefit Veterans. You may want to ask a friend, family member, case worker, advocate, etc. to help you find information if you don't have access to mail, phone, or internet. Keep in mind that this guide does not include all of the services available to you. What is available in one area may be different than what is available in another. Be sure to check your local resources to find out about help in your area.

While you are incarcerated, make sure you communicate with your unit case manager about your release planning. Classes may be offered so you can work on skills development and prepare for life after release. You don't want to be released without a plan, so take advantage of the opportunities available to you.

Begin thinking about what specifically you will need upon release. Ask yourself these kinds of questions: Will I need housing? Will I need medical, substance abuse, or mental health care? Do I need to learn a job skill? Do I have any legal issues, such as child support? How do I restart my VA checks or Supplemental Security Income (SSI)?

STEP 1: Make a list of your needs. This can be used as a tool to help you get organized. A sample list might look like this:

NEEDS:	Steps Taken	Contact	Date
<input type="checkbox"/> I need a place to live.
<input type="checkbox"/> I need a job.
<input type="checkbox"/> I need clothing to wear to work.
<input type="checkbox"/> I need to find out what benefits I can get as a Veteran.
<input type="checkbox"/> I want to get addictions treatment.
<input type="checkbox"/> I owe child support.

Think about your list as you read through this guide. Who do you think can help you with each of your needs? Is there one organization that may be able to work with you on many different things, or do you need to contact several agencies?

STEP 2: When writing a letter to request information, be clear. Keep your letter short, to the point, and write legibly. Include the following information:

- Your name and contact information.
- A brief statement about your current situation.
- Your specific request.
- What you have done so far (example: I have written to ___x___ organization and they suggested I contact you).
- Any restrictions for mailing (example: Mail with staples or paper clips will not be accepted by my prison facility).

Tips for Contacting Resources:

- When contacting an agency, be persistent and polite to get results. It is not unusual to have to contact/follow up with an agency more than once to get your answer.
- Ask questions if information is unclear to you. Many organizations are staffed by volunteers who are eager to help, but may not have the answer to your question. If someone cannot help you, ask who else might know the answer.
- The internet can be helpful to find information about VA benefits and community resources in your area. This guidebook includes web addresses, when available. If computer access is not available at your facility, you can visit the public library after release. Computer access may also be provided at Work Source and Work Source Affiliate sites, Work Force Development Council member locations, and Unemployment Security Department offices (referred to as Job Service Centers or Unemployment Offices)

SECTION 2: BASIC NEEDS UPON RELEASE

This section includes information that can help you explore your options as they relate to your most basic needs. Remember to check locally for what services are in the area to help you.

Some organizations may have waiting lists, require an interview, or have specific rules about whom they serve. It's best if you start asking about services and requirements now, so that you will be prepared when you are released. You may even ask if your name can be put on a waiting list when you get closer to your release date.

Crisis and other toll-free numbers are often listed in the front cover of the first few pages of the phone book. You may also want to check under specific county "Social Services" in the blue or yellow pages for hotlines and local numbers.

Where to Start

Check the local phone book yellow pages under "Homeless" or "Social Service Organizations" for a list of many local organizations that offer different services which may include emergency shelter, motel vouchers, clothing, urgent care medical services, and more. You may need to contact several agencies to find all the services you need. Services provided by government agencies are listed in the blue pages in the phone book, and will be organized by federal, state, county, and city. Included below are some guidelines for services, but your local agencies are your best resource. Remember, it never hurts to ask!

An HCRV Specialist is able to begin working with you prior to your release and can be a helpful ally in putting together a stable release plan. You can contact the HCRV Specialist by mail or through your facility unit case manager. You may also locate information on HCRV services on the Health Care for Reentry Veterans Homepage: <http://www1.va.gov/homeless/page.cfm?pg=38>

Most law is specific to the state in which you live. Most common legal problems are governed by where you live or where the problem occurred. When seeking legal help, make sure you get information that applies to your state, or that the lawyer or other service provider is qualified to work in your state.

Legal Services or Legal Aid Offices have staff lawyers and paralegals to provide free legal help to clients who have low or no incomes. The lawyers are usually experts in the types of problems low or no income clients often encounter. Look in the yellow or white pages for your local Legal Aid or Assistance office for South Dakota:

Women Veterans

At each VA Medical Center nationwide, a Women Veterans Program Manager is designated to advise and advocate for women Veterans. She can help coordinate all the services you may need, from primary care to specialized care for chronic conditions or reproductive health. Woman Veterans who are interested in receiving care at VA should contact the nearest VA Medical Center and ask for the Women Veterans Program Manager.

Women Veterans hotline—1-855-VA-WOMEN (1-855-829-6636)—an incoming call center that receives and responds to questions from women Veterans, their families, and caregivers across the nation about available VA services and resources. Most VA Medical Centers and readjustment offices have a designated Women Veterans Coordinator to assist with accessing VA benefits and healthcare programs. .

SECTION 4: SEEKING FEDERAL BENEFITS

The Department of Veterans Affairs publishes a booklet called “Federal Benefits for Veterans and Their Dependents” that describes the types of benefits available and lists the addresses and phone numbers for VA facilities nationwide. Write the South Dakota VA Regional Office (VARO) to request a copy.

US Dept of Veteran Affairs
Regional Office
2501 W. 22nd Street
Sioux Falls, SD 57117

You may call 1-800-827-1000 to request a book or you may find information about benefits at www.vba.va.gov/.

Below are brief descriptions of forms needed to file for certain VA benefits. Be sure you use a return address where mail will get to you as quickly as possible. Make photocopies of all forms for your records before sending your packet to the VARO nearest you.

- VA Form 21-526 - Application for Compensation or Pension- must be filed to apply for compensation or pension. Mail your DD-214 and the following forms to the VARO nearest your release destination 30 to 45 days before your release.
- VA Form 21-4138 - Statement in Support of Claim - lets you explain why you deserve the benefits you are asking for because of your disability or disorder. It is best to have an experienced service representative help you complete the form.
- VA Form 21-4142 - Authorization for Release of Information - If you have received medical or mental health care, that may be relevant to your claim, from anyone other than a VA Medical Facility, you need to fill out a VAF 21-4142 giving permission for release of medical records to the VA.
- VA Form 10-10EZ - Enrollment for Medical Benefits - is used by the VA to determine if you can receive medical benefits. Complete the form and bring it with you to the VA medical facility where you will seek evaluation for treatment.
- VA Form 28-1900 - Vocational Rehabilitation for Disabled Veterans - is needed to apply for the vocational rehabilitation program to help Veterans who were disabled during their service reach maximum independence in daily living, to learn the skills needed to get a job, and to find and keep a job. Send Form 28-1900 to the VARO in your area 10 to 15 days before your release.
- VA Form 70-3288 - Request for and Consent to Release of Information from Claimant's Records – is used to get records relevant to your claim from VA facilities (regional offices, medical centers, outpatient clinics, and vet centers). Request a fee waiver under section 38 C.F.R. Sec.1.526 (h), which requires the VARO to provide a Veteran with one set of his or her records free of charge.

Eligibility for VA Benefits During Incarceration:

Veterans incarcerated and incarcerated dependents may apply for the same compensation - dependency and indemnity compensation (DIC) - service connected death benefits - and pension benefits as Veterans who are not incarcerated. However, Congress restricts the amount of benefits that may be paid to a Veteran or dependent while he or she is incarcerated. These benefits are institutionalized as part of law: 38 U.S.C. Sec. 5313 (a), 38 C.F.R., Sec. 3.665 (a), (d), which reads as follows:

If a Veteran is incarcerated as the result of a “felony” conviction as defined by law: “Any offense punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, unless specifically categorized as a misdemeanor under the law of the prosecuting jurisdiction.”

Then, the amount paid to a Veteran incarcerated for a service-connected disability is generally limited by law to the 10 percent disability rate, or half the amount of the ten percent rate if the Veteran’s disability rating is 10 percent. (If the Veteran is rated before incarceration as 20 percent disabled or higher, he will receive only the amount payable to a 10 percent disabled Veteran). Incarcerated DIC recipients will receive one-half the amount paid to a Veteran receiving compensation payments for a 10 percent-rated disability.

A Veteran may not receive non-service connected VA pension benefits, or any portion of these benefits, while incarcerated for a felony or misdemeanor. However, his family may receive an apportionment of such benefits under the procedure described above. (See 38 C.F.R. Sec. 3.666).

One important requirement for eligibility for VA benefits is that the Veteran has to have been issued either an honorable or general discharge, or would have received one if not for re-enlisting. If a Veteran had two periods of service, one honorable and the other less than honorable, he may still be eligible for VA benefits based on the honorable period of service.

VA Medical Care cannot be provided to incarcerated Veterans, but VA health care facilities may provide care to you after your release.

Benefits Payments While Incarcerated:

There is a 60-day "grace period" following a felony conviction when you may still receive full benefits. To avoid an overpayment, it is important that you notify the VARO immediately when you go to prison if you are receiving payments. If you do not notify the VA and receive overpayment, you and your family may lose all financial payments until the debt is paid.

For example, Joe is a Veteran who receives a VA pension. He commits a crime, is convicted, and is incarcerated, but doesn't tell the VA right away and keeps getting paid for 6 months. After serving his sentence of 18 months, he is released and applies to the VA to have his pension restarted. He will have an overpayment which must be recovered from the restarted benefits. Until the overpayment is recovered, Joe will have to go without that income.

Your award for compensation or pension benefits should resume from the date you are released, as long as the VA receives notice of release within one year. Form 21-4193, Notice to Department of Veterans Affairs of Veteran or Beneficiary Incarcerated in Penal Institution, available through your counselors should be completed before release, signed by a prison official and submitted to VA Benefits Administration.

Family Benefits-Apportionment:

Although legally, the Veteran can only receive a portion of the full amount payable for his or her disability rating, the remaining balance may be “apportioned to the individual’s dependent family”. To apply for apportionment, the Veteran's dependent must send a letter that identifies the Veteran and makes it clear they are requesting an apportionment of his VA benefits to the VA Regional Office (VARO) that has jurisdiction over the Veteran’s case. VA regulations clearly specify this apportionment amount will only go to family members if they can show financial need for such amount. This applies to the spouse, children, or dependent parents who are involved in the application.

In deciding whether any apportionment is appropriate, the amount of the apportionment, and to whom it will go, the following factors are considered:

- The family member’s income and living expenses;
- The amount of compensation available to be apportioned;
- The needs and living expenses of other family members; and
- Special needs of any of the family members.

For example: a Veteran incarcerated rated as 80 percent disability can only receive the amount he or she would get if he or she were 10 percent disabled. However, his or her family may be apportioned up to 70 percent, the difference of the 80 percent rating. (DIC may also be apportioned with similar restrictions).

There is a 60-day “grace period” following incarceration on a felony conviction where the Veteran, or Dependency or Indemnity Compensation (DIC) recipient, may still receive full benefits. If the Veteran continues to receive benefits after the 60-day period, it will result in an “overpayment”. The VA considers it to be the recipient’s responsibility and fault if this occurs because the recipient failed to notify the VA of his or her incarceration. Attempts to obtain a waiver in these situations of overpayment are often unsuccessful. As a rule, the Veteran loses most, if not all, financial benefits until the VA recovers the entire overpayment. It has also been a standard procedure that the family will not be entitled to receive an apportionment until the debt is completely recovered.

One other relevant restriction on Veteran's incarcerated eligibility for service connected disability compensation is that: "No total disability rating based on un-employability, may be assigned to an incarcerated Veteran".

It is important to remember that most VA decisions, including those on apportionment, can be appealed to the Board of Veterans Appeals and, if need be, to the Court of Appeal for Veterans Affairs.

For more information concerning VA debt collection rules that may affect the veteran incarcerated, telephone: 1-800-827-1000 and request a Veterans Service Organization representative or, write to a Veterans Service Organization.

Overpayment

If you have incurred an overpayment, repayment plans are set by the VA Debt Management Center (DMC). The business hours for Debt Management Center are 7:30 am to 12:15 pm and 12:45 pm to 6:00 pm, Central Time. Mondays and the first business day of the month are always the busiest. The best times to call on those days are 10:30 am to 12:15 pm and 1:15 pm to 3:00 pm, Central Time. You can contact the DMC in the following ways:

- The VA Debt Management Center (DMC) Internet homepage is found at <http://www.va.gov/debtman/>
- Call the Debt Management Center toll free on 1-800-827-0648, or
- Contact the Debt Management Center by electronic mail at: dmc.ops@va.gov
- Write the Debt Management Center at:

Re-starting Benefits at Release:

It is important that each disabled Veteran receiving compensation or DIC payments promptly notify the VARO upon release. Regular full benefit payments should begin upon release, providing the VA is notified of the Veteran's release, including placement within a community treatment center, work release or halfway house in the community, within one year of release. VARO needs formal notification from the prison of your release in order to re-start benefits: The sooner that document is provided to VARO, the sooner VARO can begin to process your request.

Help Seeking Benefits After Release:

If you would like to get benefits or think you have a pending claim before the VA, it is best to get professional help to assist you. Veterans Service Officers (VSOs) are trained staff who can help you with your VA claim, and can legally represent your claim before the VA.

Every county has a local County Veteran Service Officer who can help with discharge upgrades, seeking VA benefits, and filing a VA claim. Please see the state listing attached or contact the SD Division of Veterans Affairs at:

*Military and Veterans Affairs
425 E Capital Ave
Pierre, SD 57501
(605)773-3269*

Seeking Benefits On Your Own:

Although we encourage you to seek the aid of a service representative, you may choose to apply for VA benefits on your own. Write your local VA Regional Office or find the forms online at: www.vba.va.gov/pubs/forms1.htm.

*South Dakota VA Regional Office
2501 W. 22nd Street
Sioux Falls, SD 57117.*
