

We Are PAM

Prison Action Milwaukee is a not-for-profit organization created in 2007. PAM provides advocacy and support for individuals and their families who are dealing with the criminal justice system around Milwaukee and Wisconsin. The organization has many years of experience helping families with members who are “away”, with the juvenile justice system, Community Corrections agents, and expungement.

Membership is made up of volunteers working as a team. These are individuals who have been in the system, had family members in the system or been in government positions within the criminal justice system.

We actively collaborate with other community, state and national organizations involved in advocacy and reform of the criminal justice system. Our advocacy is offered through in-person contacts, meetings, emails, letters and phone calls. We help people make connections and keep in touch with people who reach out to us.

PAM has established relationships with the Wisconsin Secretary of Corrections and the Milwaukee Regional Chief for Community Corrections (Probation and Parole). We have productive contacts with public prosecutors, public defenders, judges and other law enforcement officials.
