PRISON BOOK PROGRAM

c/o Lucy Parsons Center & Bookstore
1306 Hancock St, STE 100
Quincy, MA 02169

Prison Book Program
www.prisonbookprogram.org

Prison Book Program gives books to individual prisoners in the United States -- we have been doing it since 1972. We are an all-volunteer staffed and run organization. We are not a library and have no books for sale. All books and other reading materials are donated to you free-of-charge. Please feel free to share these books and the ideas in them.

PBP works to fill your book requests as quickly as possible. Sometimes, we receive such a large quantity of letters that your request may be delayed up to 7 months. Please be patient with us.

PBP can rarely match specific requests for titles or authors, but try to make the following book categories available:

- Dictionaries, Thesauruses, or Reference (please specify)
- GED and Education (Math, Science, reading or writing)
Let us know what grade level is the best fit for you (e.g., 1-12, college, professional)
- Health, Psychology, or Self-Improvement (various)
- Social Sciences (Political Science, Philosophy, psychology)
- Foreign Language (various, please specify)
- Ethnic Studies (Native or African American, Latino, etc.)
- History or (Auto)Biographies (various, please specify)
- Religious or spiritual Studies (various please specify)
- Sports or Hobbies (various)
- Fiction: classic, contemporary, fantasy, thriller short stories, drama, poetry, or plays.

PBP sometimes has the following books/topics: real estate, investments, small business, specific laws, almanacs, Spanish/English dictionaries, Wiccan spirituality, LGBT, large print (of any kind), westerns, or trade skills. Go ahead and ask us for any subject, even if it is not listed above. You might get lucky! Please provide us with different subjects to choose from. If you send us 3 options, we will most likely find a substitution and/or your 2nd or 3rd choice. If looking for a specific author, please provide the type of books they write.

Unfortunately, we do not send books or any other materials to: California, Illinois, Maryland (except Jessup, Cumberland, and Hagerstown), Michigan, Nevada, Texas, and certain individual prisons. We do not send books or materials to any jails.

Who was Lucy Parsons?

Lucy Parsons (1853 - 1942) was a radical American labor organizer, anarchist, and powerful public speaker. She was born in Texas (likely as a slave) to the parents of Native American, African American, and Mexican ancestry. Because of her singular fight against social and economic oppression, Lucy led a controversial life. Lucy Parsons always kept a sharp eye on the social revolution that she was convinced was necessary to change what she saw as the glaring excesses of the oppressive capitalist system. (SOURCE: Wikipedia)

Lucy Parsons was a fearless revolutionary.

The legacy of Lucy is alive in the Boston area where, one can find the Lucy Parsons Center -- a bookstore and gathering place for a wide range of anarchists, political radicals, activists, and generally concerned citizens.

We Want to Hear from You

We want provide you with the highest level of educational resources. Our highest hope is to help you learn and achieve your goals with the books and resources we provide to you.

Please write us a letter if a book has helped you while you were/are in prison or if, upon leaving prison, it helps you succeed as you make a new start. (Get your GED, go to school, find a new job, start a business, etc.)

Whether your success story is big or small, it is still a success and we want to hear all about it!

Your artwork, personal stories of success, and how books have impacted you can make a huge difference to our program. We can take your letters and artwork to potential donors and ask for more books and more funds with which to buy postage for future book shipments. We appreciate your help!

We hope to continue sending books to people like you. Please encourage your family and friends to support us financially.
